

Fairest of the Fair

Guidelines Regulations Affirmation

Always Dress Appropriately! Surprisingly, people remember who you are and come to expect professionalism.

Remember, you are on duty at all times.

“Do not tell tales out of school”...keep information to general items.

Direct people to the specific areas for answers if you do not know them.

Get to know the general operating procedures.

Check out the fair grounds so that you know your way around, or can direct others.

Never let your thoughts be known. It will show on your face.

Be happy, SMILE, and show genuine interest.

Be careful what you say, you can't take it back once it is out

Think First – others count.

Be proud, not vain about your title.

Remember names when at all possible.

All personal appearances need to be with a Board member, committee member, or relative.
Never make appearances alone.

When at Fair, always travel the grounds with someone, unless given permission to go out on your own.

No smoking, drinking, drugs, visible tattoos larger than 1 inch, visible body piercing (ear lobes allowed).

Guidelines & Regulations Continued

No Facebook, My Space, LinkedIn or any other social networking site postings on any of your or anyone else's pages regarding the Fairest of the Fair are allowed with the exception of Manitowoc County Expo relating to public appearances.

No more than 2 absences from scheduled appearances will be allowed.

I give permission to Manitowoc County Expo to post pictures or written communication pertaining to the Fairest of the Fair.

I understand a background check will be prior to the Fairest of the Fair competition as this title is a part of Manitowoc County Expo and falls under the guidelines incurred by the County. The position is contingent upon a background review being acceptable to the Expo-Ice Center Board.

I understand that the Manitowoc County Expo-Ice Center Board has the right to rescind my title should any I not adhere to the rules and regulations as stated above. Failure to agree and sign the above requirements forfeits my position as Fairest of the Fair. I will be asked to return the tiara and banner.
